000 COMPUTER SCIENCE, KNOWLEDGE & SYSTEMS

001.4 Research; statistical methods

Best, Joel
★ Damned lies and statistics; untangling numbers from the media, politicians, and activists. University of Calif. Press 2001 190p $19.95 Grades: 9 10 11 12

1. Statistics
ISBN 0-520-21978-3

The author aims to “remind us that we need to treat statistics skeptically. . . . Best explains [what he sees as] the four basic sources of flawed statistics (bad guesses, deceptive definitions, confusing questions, biased samples). Then he examines mutant statistics and discusses the illogic of statistical comparisons that attempt to equate differing time periods, places, groups, or social problems.” Christ Sci Monit “Invaluable counsel for good citizenship.” Booklist Includes bibliographical references

MacLeod, Don
How to find out anything; from extreme Google searches to scouring government documents, a guide to uncovering anything about everyone and everything. Don MacLeod. 1st ed. Prentice Hall Press 2012 x, 256 p.p (pbk.) $20 Grades: 10 11 12 Adult

1. Information resources
2. Internet searching
3. Research -- Methodology
4. Electronic information resources
5. Electronic information resource searching
ISBN 0735204675; 9780735204676

In this book, “researcher Don MacLeod explains how to find what you’re looking for quickly, efficiently, and accurately—and how to avoid the most common mistakes of the Google Age. . . . [The author] shows you how to unveil nearly anything about anyone. From top CEO’s salaries to police records, . . . researching for a term paper or digging up dirt on an ex, the advice in this book arms you with the sleuthing skills to tackle any mystery.” (Publisher’s note)

★ Nobel; a century of prize winners. selected and edited by Michael Worek. 2nd ed.; Firefly Books 2010 335p il map $39.95; pa $24.95 Grades: 11 12 Adult 001.4 1. Nobel Prizes

LC 2010-293512

Original Portuguese edition, 2007; first published in English 2008

Presents the lives and accomplishments of more than two hundred Noble Prize winners, from the initial 1901 prizes to the 2009 winners, along with a complete listing of the eight hundred individuals and organizations that have won the prize.

Includes bibliographical references

Selverstone, Harriet S.
Encouraging and supporting student inquiry; researching controversial issues. Libraries Unlimited 2007 xlii, 238p (Libraries Unlimited professional guides in school librarianship) pa $40 Grades: Adult Professional 001.4

1. Research
2. Intellectual freedom
3. High school libraries
4. Bibliographic instruction

The author gives “advice for advocating inquiry-based research, especially for hot topics that are most interesting to students. She advises library media specialists on what constitutes controversial topics, how to collaborate with teachers to foster critical thinking, and how to gain administrative support for this kind of program research. . . . The philosophies and ideas presented make this book an ideal purchase to promote and foster collaboration with the school communities in which many of us work.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

Tufte, Edward R.
The visual display of quantitative information; 2nd ed; Graphics Press 2001 197p il $40 Grades: 11 12 Adult 001.4

1. Statistics -- Graphic methods

ISBN 0-9613921-4-2

LC 2001-271866

First published 1983

This book focuses “on statistical graphics, charts, tables. Theory and practice in the design of data graphics, 250 illustrations of the best (and a few of the worst) statistical graphics, with . . . analysis of how to display data for precise, effective, quick analysis.” Publisher’s note
Valenza, Joyce Kasman

* Power research tools; learning activities & posters. illustrated by Emily Valenza. American Library Association 2003 113p il pa $55

Grades: Adult Professional 001.4
ISBN 0-8389-0838-1

A collection of “lessons, rubrics, graphic organizers, and curriculum designed to help students become successful users of information. Beginning with the first steps of research, the development of a thesis, the material progresses logically through the succeeding steps, covering Boolean operators; search tools and strategies; subject and keyword searching; ethics; plagiarism; documenting and citing resources; creating source and note cards; the process of writing the paper; and quoting, paraphrasing, and summarizing. . . . This is an invaluable resource for teaching information skills in any subject area, in middle school or high school.” SLJ

Wilson, A. Paula

* 100 ready-to-use pathfinders for the Web; a guidebook and CD-ROM. Neal-Schuman Publishers 2005 xxiii, 247p il pa $75

Grades: Adult Professional 001.4
1. Internet research 2. Reference services (Libraries)

This “resource offers step-by-step instructions for creating pathfinders to post on your library’s Web site . . . The CD reproduces . . . specific examples in HTML and plain text as well as providing blank templates for immediate use. . . . The pathfinders are for all age ranges and skill levels and include books, online sources, government sources, magazines, and subject headings that could link to the library’s catalog.” Voice Youth Advocates

This “is an important addition to the literature of practical library guides.” Ref & User Services Quarterly
Includes bibliographical references

001.9 Controversial knowledge

Clark, Jerome

Unnatural phenomena; a guide to the bizarre wonders of North America. illustrations by John Clark. ABC-CLIO 2005 xxxiv, 369p il $85

Grades: 11 12 Adult 001.9
1. Curiosities and wonders
ISBN 1-57607-430-7

“Organized geographically, . . . [this book] explores the history of bizarre natural phenomena in virtually every U.S. state.” Publisher’s note
Includes bibliographical references

Coleman, Loren

* Cryptozoology A-Z; the encyclopedia of loch monsters, Sasquatch, Chupacabras, and other authentic mysteries of nature. {by} Loren Coleman and Jerome Clark. Simon & Schuster 1999 270p il pa $13

Grades: 11 12 Adult 001.9
1. Reference books 2. Monsters -- Encyclopedias
ISBN 0-684-85602-6

LC 99-31023

Cryptozoology is defined as the study of hidden animals. This encyclopedia “contains nearly two hundred entries, including cryptids (the name given to these unusual beasts), new animal finds, and the explorers and scientists who search for them.” Publisher’s note
Includes bibliographical references

Miller, Ron

Is the end of the world near? from crackpot predictions to scientific scenarios. Twenty-First Century Books 2011 120p il

Grades: 6 7 8 9 10 001.9
1. End of the world
ISBN 0-7613-7396-9; 978-0-7613-7396-4

LC 2010051963

“The author devotes most of his presentation to a selective tally of our possible ends, from religious and pseudo-scientific predictions (including the supposed Mayan apocalypse ‘scheduled’ for December 21, 2012) to an array of more feasible pandemics, ecological breakdowns, nuclear conflagrations, supervolcanoes, and other natural catastrophes. . . . He also tucks in references to prominent end-of-days novels and films, and takes his eschatological narrative to the universe-ending ‘Big Crunch’ before closing on a perversely optimistic note. Capped with generous annotated lists of multimedia resources and illustrated throughout with dramatic photographed or digitally rendered disasters.” SLJ
Includes bibliographical references

Sagan, Carl, 1934-1996

The demon-haunted world; science as a candle in the dark. Random House 1996 457p hardcover o.p. pa $14.95

Grades: 11 12 Adult 001.9
ISBN 0-394-53512-X; 0-345-40946-9 pa

LC 95-34076

“Using basic tools of science—empiricism, rationalism, and experimentation—Sagan debunks . . . common fallacies of pseudoscience. In doing so, he speculates as to how such beliefs arise.” Libr J

Sagan “links today’s aliens with yesterday’s demons in this lithe, well-supported, sometimes quite wry, and altogether refreshing performance.” Booklist
Includes bibliographical references

Shermer, Michael

* Why people believe weird things; pseudoscience, superstition, and other confusions of our time. foreword by Stephen Jay Gould. rev and expanded; Freeman, W.H. 2002 xxvi, 349p il pa $16
First published 1997
The author “explores the very human reasons people find otherworldly phenomena, conspiracy theories, and cults so appealing. In . . . [the] chapter, ‘Why Smart People Believe in Weird Things’ he takes on science luminaries like physicist Frank Tippler and others, who hide their spiritual beliefs behind the trappings of science.” Publisher’s note
Includes bibliographical references

004
Computer science; computer programming, programs, data; special computer methods

Ceruzzi, Paul E.
A history of modern computing; 2nd ed; MIT Press 2003 445p il pa $22.95
Grades: 9 10 11 12
1. Computers 2. Data processing
ISBN 0-262-53203-4
LC 2002-40799
First published 1998
This history “concentrates on five key moments of transition: the transformation of the computer in the late 1940s from a specialized scientific instrument to a commercial product; the emergence of small systems in the late 1960s; the beginning of personal computing in the 1970s; the spread of networking after 1985; and . . . the period 1995-2001 {including} . . . the Microsoft antitrust suit, the rise and fall of the dot-coms, and the advent of open source software.” Publisher’s note
Includes bibliographical references and index

Downing, Douglas
★ Dictionary of computer and Internet terms; [by] Douglas A. Downing ... [et al.]; with the assistance of Sharon Covington. 10th ed.; Barron’s Educational Series 2009 554p il (Barron’s business guides) pa $14.99
Grades: 9 10 11 12 Adult
1. Reference books 2. Computer science -- Dictionaries
ISBN 0-262-53203-4
LC 2002-40799
First published 1998
This history “concentrates on five key moments of transition: the transformation of the computer in the late 1940s from a specialized scientific instrument to a commercial product; the emergence of small systems in the late 1960s; the beginning of personal computing in the 1970s; the spread of networking after 1985; and . . . the period 1995-2001 {including} . . . the Microsoft antitrust suit, the rise and fall of the dot-coms, and the advent of open source software.” Publisher’s note
Includes bibliographical references and index

Facts on File, Inc.
The Facts on File dictionary of computer science; edited by John Daintith, Edmund Wright. Rev. ed.; Facts on File 2006 273p il (Facts on File science library) $49.50
High definition; an A to Z guide to personal technology. Houghton Mifflin 2006 361p il pa $14.95

Grades: 9 10 11 12 Adult 004

1. Reference books 2. Electric household appliances

-- Dictionaries

ISBN 0-618-71489-8; 978-0-618-71489-6

LC 2006-19549

This dictionary “brings together more than 3000 terms used to describe the components, functions, and applications of devices found in today’s homes and offices: cell phones, computers, MP3 players, gaming systems, CD and DVD players, and more. . . . This very affordable volume should be part of every reference collection, large and small.” Libr J

Hollander, Barbara Gottfried

Milestones in computer science and information technology. Greenwood Press 2003 392p $70

Grades: 9 10 11 12 004

1. Computer science 2. Information technology

ISBN 1-573-56521-0

LC 2002-44843

Over 600 alphabetically arranged entries describe the significant developments in computer science and advances in information technology

“The articles are clearly written and accessible, containing essential details without reliance on technical jargon. . . . Extremely useful tools include a listing of the ‘Top Ten’ milestones, and four separate indexes devoted to personal names, chronology, geography, and general topics.” Libr Media Connect

Includes bibliographical references and index

Saint Amant, Robert

Computing for ordinary mortals; Robert St. Amant; hand drawn illustrations by Stefano Imbert. Oxford University Press 2013 viii, 246 p.p (hardback: alk. paper) $29.95

Grades: 10 11 12 004

-- History

ISBN 0199775303; 9780199775309

LC 2012015125

In this book, “computer scientist Robert St. Amant explains” the ideas behind computing technology, “introducing basic computing concepts.” He gives “a brief history of the earliest computers, and then he traces two different threads through the fabric of computing. One thread . . . illuminates how the architecture of a computer and show[s] how this architecture makes computation efficient. . . . The other thread . . . describes how computers are, in the abstract, machines for solving problems.” (Publisher’s note)

Includes bibliographical references and index

Dingwell, Heath

Interfacing and communications

The truth about Internet and online predators; Robert N. Golden, general editor, Fred L. Peterson, general editor; Heath Dingwell, principal author. Facts On File 2011 134p il (Truth about series) $35

Grades: 9 10 11 12 004.6

ISBN 978-0-8160-7648-2; 0-8160-7648-0; 978-1-4381-3628-8 pa; 1-4381-3628-5 pa

LC 2010-29296

“While acknowledging the positive aspects of the Internet, this book addresses important safety issues in an A-to-Z format. Topics include blogging, bullies, chat rooms, hate crimes, instant messaging, online predators, phishing and pharming, pornography, privacy, social networking, and more. The information is detailed and easily accessible.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

Johnson, Doug

Learning right from wrong in the digital age; an ethics guide for parents, teachers, librarians, and others who care about computer-using young people. Linworth Pub. 2003 122p pa $44.55

Grades: Adult Professional 004.6

1. Internet 2. Cheating (Education) 3. Computers and children

LC 2003-43320

“Johnson’s ‘3 P’s of Technology Ethics,’ Privacy, Property, and a(P)propriate use, are effectively and excitingly addressed through both discussion and instructional scenarios.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

Mooney, Carla

Online predators. ReferencePoint Press 2011 96p il (Issues in the digital age)
004.67 Wide-area networks

Obee, Jennifer

Grades: 10 11 12 Adult 004.67

1. Social networking 2. Internet and teenagers
ISBN 0810881209; 9780810881204; 9780810881211
LC 2011049875

This book by Jennifer Obee “helps young adults make the most of their online experience, giving them a complete understanding of social networking while also addressing online safety. . . . Author Jennifer Obee helps teens navigate through the challenging intricacies of social networks, covering such topics as: Facebook . . . Youtube . . . [and] Twitter.” The book includes “quotes from teenagers about their favorite sites and personal stories.” (Publisher’s note) Includes bibliographical references

005.8 Data security

Earp, Paul W.

Securing library technology; a how-to-do-it manual. [by] Paul W. Earp and Adam Wright. Neal-Schuman Publishers 2009 245p il (How-to-do-it manuals for librarians) pa $65

Grades: Adult Professional 005.8

LC 2008-46166

“Have you had your identity stolen? Are all firewalls safe from hackers? What is a hop? What is the difference between a virus and a worm? Can someone listen in on your Voice-Over Internet Protocol service? These are just a few questions answered in this manual, which is full of forms, suggestions, and inventories.” Libr Media Connect

Includes glossary and bibliographical references

Harmon, Daniel E.

Careers in Internet security; [by] Daniel E. Harmon. Rosen Pub. 2011 80p il (Careers in computer technology) lib bdg $31.95

Grades: 9 10 11 12 Adult 005.8

1. Internet -- Security measures 2. Internet -- Vocational guidance
ISBN 978-1-4488-13155; 1-4488-1315-8
LC 2010006860

Outlines a variety of different job opportunities in the field of internet security.

“The writing style and language for each book are clear and concise without being too simplistic...This would be good... to incorporate either in the classroom or in a library since it deals with a growing field that is in high demand, and it also discusses job opportunities for individuals as young as high school.” VOYA

Includes bibliographical references

Hunter, Nick

Internet safety; Nick Hunter. Heinemann Library 2012 56 p. col. ill.

Grades: 6 7 8 9 10 005.8

1. Internet users 2. Internet -- Safety measures 3. Computer crimes -- Prevention
ISBN 9781432948719; 9781432962050
LC 2010046905

“...Discusses types of crime, cyber bullying, phishing, and scams and viruses, ending with ways to protect yourself. Statistics and websites provide information for both individual research and for educators wishing to lead discussion on the topic... Good choices for student research and debate.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references (p. 54-55) and index

006.3 Artificial intelligence

Baker, Stephen

Final Jeopardy; man vs. machine and the quest to know everything. Houghton Mifflin Harcourt 2011 268p $24

Grades: 11 12 Adult 006.3

ISBN 978-0-547-48316-0; 0-547-48316-3
LC 2010051653

“In February 2011, the world watched as a computer named Watson handily beat the two greatest Jeopardy champions of all time. The contest was reminiscent of when IBM’s Deep Blue defeated chess grandmaster Garry Kasparov, but Jeopardy was a much more difficult game for a computer to master. Although Baker ... reviews the match in his last chapter, his primary focus here is on the compelling story of Watson’s creation and education. . . . This is a thought-provoking view of one of IBM’s major contributions to the computing field.” Libr J

Includes bibliographical references

Henderson, Harry

Artificial intelligence; mirrors for the mind. Chelsea House 2007 190p il (Milestones in discovery and invention) $35

Grades: 7 8 9 10 11 12 006.3

1. Artificial intelligence
ISBN 0-8160-5749-4; 978-0-8160-5749-8
LC 2006-16639
This book includes “portraits of the men and women in the vanguard of this innovative field. Subjects include Alan Turing, who made the connection between mathematical reasoning and computer operations; Allen Newell and Herbert Simon, who created a program that could reason like a human being; Pattie Maes, who developed computerized agents to help people with research and shopping; and Ray Kurzweil, who, besides inventing the flatbed scanner and a reading machine for the blind, has explored relationships between people and computers that may exceed human intelligence.” Publisher’s note

Includes glossary and bibliographical references

Pearce, Q. L.

Artificial intelligence. Lucent Books 2011 112p il (Technology 360) $33.45

Grades: 7 8 9 10 006.3

1. Robots 2. Artificial intelligence

LC 2011006362

This offers “clean design with clear explanations of sometimes-complicated scientific subjects. . . . Artificial Intelligence covers the history of how people have tried to teach machines to think and move, concluding with a chapter on the ethics surrounding AI. . . . A strong [title] for report writers and students with a serious interest in technology and its inventions.” Booklist

Includes glossary and bibliographical references

---

Hansen, Brad

The dictionary of multimedia; terms & acronyms. 4th ed; Franklin, Beedle & Associates 2005 611p il $50

Grades: 9 10 11 12 006.6

1. Reference books 2. Multimedia -- Dictionaries

First published 1997

Contains over 5000 technical and multimedia terms from a multidisciplinary perspective including audio, graphics, video, networking, human factors, and general computing. Copyright issues and international standards are addressed. Includes a basic HTML tutorial and an appendix listing books, software, manuals and periodicals, as well as covering digital video, MIDI and Internet development.

---

Coombs, Karen A.

Grades: Adult Professional 006.7

1. Librarians -- Weblogs

ISBN 978-1-58683-331-2; 1-58683-331-6

“This book is an overview of the world of blogs in libraries, including both use and technological discussions. The authors bring you the ‘whys’ and ‘how to’ of using a blog in a library context, including the different options available for a library blog, the appropriateness of each option, and the possibilities of each program or service.” Publisher’s note

---

Grades: Adult Professional 011

1. Reference books -- Bibliography 2. Libraries -- Collection development

ISBN 9781610695480

Annual. First published 1970

This book “provides librarians with insightful, critical reviews of all reference resources released in 2013 as well as some from 2012 and 2014. Highlighting both the positive and negative aspects of each resource, users will be able to make informed decisions about which new resources are most appropriate for their collection and their patrons’ needs.” (Publisher’s note)

“Each issue covers the reference book output (including reprints) of the previous year (i.e., the 1970 volume covers 1969 publications). Offers descriptive and evaluative notes (many of them signed by contributors), with references to selected reviews. Limited to titles in English. Classed arrangement; author-subject-title index.” Guide to Ref Books. 11th edition
Hysell, Shannon Graff

Recommended reference books for small and medium-sized libraries and media centers, Vol. 34; Shannon Graff/Hysell, associate editor. Libraries Unlimited 2014 301 p. $75

Grades: Adult Professional 011

Annual. First published 1981

Written by Shannon Graff Hysell, “This volume presents the top 550 reviews from the latest edition of American Reference Books Annual (ARBA) to give collection development librarians working in small to medium-sized libraries the best information for choosing new titles for their libraries. Overviewing the breadth of reference products (both print and online) that became available in 2013, all of the titles . . . have price points that will appeal to libraries on a budget.” (Publisher’s note)

Each annual volume includes reviews of about 550 titles chosen by the editor as the most valuable reference titles published during the previous year.

011.6  General bibliographies and catalogs of works for young people and people with disabilities; for specific types of libraries

Barr, Catherine, 1951-

Best books for high school readers; grades 9-12. [by] Catherine Barr and John T. Gillespie. 2nd ed; Libraries Unlimited 2009 1075p $85

Grades: Adult Professional 011.6

LC 2008-50756

First published 1991 by Bowker with title: Best books for senior high readers

“Each title included . . . offers two positive reviews with the exception of some entries in nonfiction series and adult selections suitable for young adults that receive restricted space from journals. All volumes incorporated were in print at the end of October 2008.” Voice Youth Advocates

Gillespie, John Thomas, 1928-

Grades: Adult Professional 011.6

LC 2006017624

“Prefaced by a brief guide to booktalking are one hundred entries for in-print classic titles for teens, taken from the out-of-print Juniorplots and Seniorplots series. Additional titles have been added to round out the eight theme/genre-based sections, which include topics such as Teenage Life and Concerns, Historical Fiction and Other Lands, and Important Nonfiction. . . . This excellent resource offers from sixteen to twenty titles per section.” Voice Youth Advocates

Includes bibliographical references

Outstanding books for the college bound; titles and programs for a new generation. edited by Angela Carstensen. American Library Association 2011 164p pa $50

Grades: Adult Professional 011.6

LC 2011-11853

First published 1984

This book lists “over 400 books deemed outstanding for the college bound by the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA). . . . [It] includes indexes searchable by topic, year, title, and author.” Publisher’s note

Includes bibliographical references

Rosow, La Vergne

Accessing the classics; great reads for adults, teens, and English language learners. Libraries Unlimited 2006 301p $40

Grades: Adult Professional 011.6

LC 2005-30838

“The intended audience is wide-ranging and includes anyone who wishes to foster language and literacy skills. Essential reading.” Booklist

Includes bibliographical references

Safford, Barbara Ripp

Guide to reference materials for school library media centers; 6th ed; Libraries Unlimited 2010 236p $60

Grades: Adult Professional 011.6

LC 2009-51190

“This volume has been updated to include web-based reference offerings as well as listings of older sources, provided that their content is still valid. . . . This title profiles resources recommended for use by school librarians for collection management, readers’ advisory, teaching, general reference materials, the social sciences and humanities, and science and technology. This volume is an excellent starting point for new school librarians, as well as for those who are building a library from scratch.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

Silver, Linda R.

Best Jewish books for children and teens; JPS guide. The Jewish Publication Society 2010 325p il pa $20

Grades: Adult Professional 011.6

Children’s literature -- Bibliography  4.  Young adult literature -- Bibliography

“Chapters are organized by subject and entries within each include a . . . description of the book and author, and Silver’s own insights on what makes it worth reading. There are title, subject, author, and illustrator indexes, title-grouping by reading level, and lists of award winners.” Publisher’s note

Includes bibliographical references

Welch, Rolle James

★ A core collection for young adults; 2nd ed; Neal-Schuman Publishers 2011 416p (Teens @ the library series) pa $80

Grades: Adult Professional  011.6

LC 2010-283705

First published 2003 under the authorship of Patrick Jones Provides information meant to be a practical manual for developing collections that appeal to teens. Includes a guide to more than 100 “Best” lists, tips for maintaining a core collection, and selection tips for major YA genres.

“The book is a wide-reaching resource that introduces literature with appeal to young adults to an audience new to library work with teens.” Voice Youth Advocates

Includes bibliographical references

Young Adult Library Services Association

The official YALSA awards guidebook; compiled and edited by Tina Frolund for the Young Adult Library Services Association. Neal-Schuman Publishers 2008 171p pa $55

Grades: Adult Professional  011.6

LC 2008-17584

This “volume offers one-stop shopping for an overview of the Alex, Printz, and Edwards awards. In addition to annotated bibliographies of winners and honor books, the title includes acceptance speeches for the Printz and Edwards awards and award interviews from YALSA starworts Mary Arnold, Michael Cart, and Betty Carter.” Bull Cent Child Books

Includes bibliographical references

011.62 Works for young people

Cart, Michael

Cart’s top 200 adult books for young adults; two decades in review. Michael Cart. American Library Association 2012 136 p. (paperback) $50

Grades: Adult Professional  011.62
1.  Best books  2.  Young adult literature  3.  Best books

-- United States  4.  Teenagers -- Books and reading -- United States -- Bibliography
ISBN 0838911587;  9780838911587

LC 2012027260

In this book, Michael Cart identifies “exceptional adult books that will satisfy a variety of young adults recreational reading tastes. Drawing on his work as columnist and critic for ‘Booklist,’ Cart bases his recommendations on the notoriously choosy reading interests of today’s older young adults, and his roundup of high-quality titles . . . covers a wide range of genres” and “includes numerous read-alikes and related-titles lists.” (Publisher’s note)

Includes bibliographical references and index

016 Bibliographies and catalogs of works on specific subjects

Al-Hazza, Tami Craft

Grades: Adult Professional  016

LC 2007-40149

“This book examines the body of literature about the diverse groups of people who inhabit the Middle East, and it also explores a variety of ways in which this literature can be used. . . . It fills a huge gap and should not be overlooked. This powerhouse book will be tremendously helpful to media specialists, educators, and public librarians.” Voice Youth Advocates

Includes bibliographical references

Burns, Allan

★ Thematic guide to American poetry. Greenwood Press 2002 309p $54.95

Grades: 9 10 11 12  016
1.  American poetry -- History and criticism
ISBN 0-313-31462-4

LC 2001-58646

This “features 21 narrative essays on such broad themes in American poetry as ‘Art and Beauty,’ ‘Family Relations,’ ‘Loss,’ and ‘War.’ The essays are arranged alphabetically, and each begins with a theme-related quotation followed by a chronologically arranged discussion of how the theme is treated differently across individual poems. . . . The narratives for each poem are pithy and clear, discussing only generally how the poem portrays the theme under discussion.” Booklist

Includes bibliographical references

Craver, Kathleen W.

Grades: 8 9 10 11 12  016
-- History -- 19th century -- Chronology
ISBN 978-0-313-34810-5; 0-313-34810-3

LC 2008-4508

“This comprehensive resource covers important topics such as ‘The Sally Hemmings and Thomas Jefferson Connection (1802),’ ‘Great Chicago Fire (1871),’ and ‘Plessy v. Ferguson (1899).’ Each essay provides a synopsis of the person, event, or place; term-paper suggestions; alternative projects such as making related movies or designing broadsheets; and a listing of accessible primary and secondary print works, and multimedia and Web sources.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

---

Crew, Hilary S.

Women engaged in war in literature for youth; a guide to resources for children and young adults. Scarecrow Press 2007 303p (Literature for youth) pa $51

Grades: Adult Professional 016

ISBN 978-0-8108-4929-7; 0-8108-4929-1

LC 2006-101112

“Crew’s guide to print and online sources documents women’s roles in wars over the centuries and throughout the world, divided by time periods. . . . This is a great addition for libraries looking for a way to move Women’s Studies beyond the month of March.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

---

Fichtelberg, Susan

Encountering enchantment; a guide to speculative fiction for teens. Libraries Unlimited 2007 328p (Genreflecting advisory series) $48

Grades: Adult Professional 016

ISBN 1-59158-316-0; 978-1-59158-316-5

LC 2006-33739

“This useful guide should be in every YA collection.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

---

Fonseca, Anthony J.

Hooked on horror III; a guide to reading interests. [by] Anthony J. Fonseca and June Michele Pulliam. Libraries Unlimited 2009 xxiii, 515p (Genreflecting advisory series) $62

Grades: Adult Professional 016

ISBN 978-1-59158-540-4

LC 2008-45518

First published 1999 with title: Hooked on horror

This book “provides annotations of horror books published between 2003 and 2008, including collections, anthologies, and series.” Voice Youth Advocates

Includes bibliographical references

---

Frolund, Tina

★ Genrefied classics; a guide to reading interests in classical literature. Libraries Unlimited 2007 xxiv, 365p (Genreflecting advisory series) $45

Grades: Adult Professional 016

1. Reference books 2. Fiction -- Bibliography

ISBN 1-59158-172-9; 978-1-59158-172-7

LC 2006-33740

“By identifying the genre characteristics of more than 400 classic fiction works, and organizing titles according to these features, this guide helps readers find the type of books they enjoy.” Publisher’s note

Includes bibliographical references

---

Gannon, Michael B.

Blood, bedlam, bullets, and badguys; a reader’s guide to adventure/suspense fiction. Libraries Unlimited 2004 385p (Genreflecting advisory series) $55

Grades: Adult Professional 016

1. Reference books 2. Suspense fiction -- Bibliography 3. Adventure fiction -- Bibliography

ISBN 1-563-08732-4

“Fifteen chapters cover subgenres such as espionage, legal and medical thrillers, sea adventures, and novels with elements of the paranormal. Each chapter begins with a definition of the subgenre and brief discussions of its history and appeal. There is also a very useful list of things to keep in mind when advising a reader.” Booklist

Includes bibliographical references

---

Garcha, Rajinder

Grades: Adult Professional 016

ISBN 978-0-8108-5488-8; 0-8108-5488-0

LC 2005-26645

“This annotated bibliography has more than 700 selected print and electronic resources. Each numbered entry includes complete bibliographic information, a recommended grade level, and a one-paragraph summary and critique.” SLJ

“This highly useful bibliography fills a conspicuous gap in a much-needed cultural area.” Voice Youth Advocates

Includes bibliographical references

---

Halsall, Jane

Grades: Adult Professional 016

1. Young adults’ libraries 2. Libraries and motion pictures 3. Motion pictures -- Catalogs

LC 2009-20300
“This is an excellent guide for librarians interested in building a popular film collection to satisfy their teen audiences. It offers professionals an organized look at current films that have young adult appeal and provides analysis of the importance of such a collection.” SLJ

Includes filmographies and bibliographical references

Hardy, Lyda Mary

★ Women in U.S. history; a resource guide. Libraries Unlimited 2000 344p pa $45

Grades: Adult Professional 016
LC 00-55849

This overview of historical resources includes primary sources as well as biographies, autobiographies and compilations. Best books, Web sites, and videos are included. Subject and author/title indexes are appended. Includes bibliographical references

Herald, Diana Tixier

Fluent in fantasy; the next generation. [by] Diana Tixier Herald and Bonnie Kunzel. Libraries Unlimited 2008 312p (Genreflecting advisory series) $52

Grades: Adult Professional 016
LC 2007-28840

First published 1999

“More than 2,000 titles are arranged by author in 14 thematic chapters, including ‘Epic Fantasy,’ ‘Arthurian Legend,’ and ‘Time Travel Romance.’ . . . An essential collection development and readers’-advisory tool.” Booklist

Includes bibliographical references

★ Genreflecting: a guide to popular reading interests. edited by Wayne A. Wiegand. 6th ed; Libraries Unlimited 2013 622p. (Genreflecting advisory series) (Hardcopy; acid-free paper) $75

Grades: Adult Professional 016
LC 2012051480

First published 1982 under the authorship of Betty Rosenberg

This book for librarians on popular reading interests features “chapters devoted to each major genre with an overview of the genre’s characteristics and appeal elements followed by definitions of popular subgenres, lists of benchmark titles, reader favorites, book-group selections, and resources for further investigation. Parts 1 and 2 focus on readers’-advisory services in the public library for the novice. . . . The chapters on the genres, found in part 3, are the series’ stock-in-trade.” (Booklist)

Includes bibliographical references

★ Teen genreflecting 3; a guide to reading interests. Libraries Unlimited 2011 xxiv, 377p (Genreflecting advisory series) $48

Grades: Adult Professional 016
LC 2010-40791

First published 1997 with title: Teen genreflecting

“The chapters and subchapters provide a brief overview of the topic and are organized by genre, subgenre, or an overall theme. Each entry is annotated and includes a concise subject list, and some entries include a list of read-alikes. Herald also includes books written for children and those for adults that have teen appeal. . . . Herald suggests using this volume to identify read-alikes, to beef up genre collections, and for library staff to familiarize themselves with the literature. . . . A worthy addition to reference or professional-development collection.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

Hollands, Neil

Read on . . . fantasy fiction; reading lists for every taste. Libraries Unlimited 2007 210p (Read on series) pa $30

Grades: Adult Professional 016
LC 2007-7841

“Librarians who do readers advisory for teens or adults will wonder how they ever got along without this funny, opinionated, wide-angle guide.” SLJ

Johnson, Sarah L.

Historical fiction; a guide to the genre. Libraries Unlimited 2005 xxi, 813p (Genreflecting advisory series) $75

Grades: Adult Professional 016
LC 2005-47483

“Each category, e.g., ‘Traditional Historical Novels,’ ‘Historical Thrillers,’ ‘Time-Slip Novels,’ is subdivided further by world region and historical era. . . . The annotations also indicate benchmarks of the genre, award winners, and titles recommended for young adults and reading groups. . . . This is an excellent resource.” Choice

Includes bibliographical references

Historical fiction II; a guide to the genre. Libraries Unlimited 2009 738p (Genreflecting advisory series) $65

Grades: Adult Professional 016
LC 2008-45537

“Johnson has updated her outstanding Historical Fiction: A Guide to the Genre (2005) by covering historical fiction from 2004 through mid-2008 and adding such new features as ISBNs for each book and keyword descriptors after each annotation. . . . This volume continues rather than replaces the earlier work, adding more than 2,700 new titles.” Booklist

Includes bibliographical references

Latino literature; edited by Sara E. Martinez; foreword by Connie Van Fleet. Libraries Unlimited 2009 xxii, 364p (Genreflecting advisory series) $60
Grades: Adult Professional 016
1. Reference books 2. American literature -- Hispanic
American authors -- Bibliography
LC 2009-26355

“The goal [of this book] is to sample broadly from Latino authors in the U.S., Latin America, Portugal, and Spain. Coverage is limited to works available in English that were first published between the years 1995 and 2008. Approximately 750 entries are divided into 9 chapters: ‘General Fiction,’ ‘Historical Fiction,’ ‘Women’s Fiction,’ ‘Latina Romance and Love Stories,’ ‘Mysteries and Suspense,’ ‘Fantastic Fiction,’ ‘Young Adult Fiction,’ ‘Life
Stories,’ and ‘Narrative Nonfiction.’ Entries include bibliographic information, a plot summary, an excerpt from the book, awards won, key features, subjects, and similar titles.
. . . This well-written book is an essential resource for pub-lc and high-school libraries, especially if they serve Latino populations.” Booklist

Includes bibliographical references

Neumann, Caryn E.

★ Term paper resource guide to African American history. Greenwood Press 2009 304p (American mosaic) $65
Grades: 9 10 11 12 016
Americans -- History 4. African Americans --
Bibliography
ISBN 978-0-313-35501-1
LC 2008-51972

“These 100 succinct yet detailed guides for planning research on African-American history cover topics from the early slave trade to North America in 1581 to Hurricane Katrina in 2005. Each approximately four-page section opens with a summary of the time period, followed by lists of termpaper suggestions, alternate topics, and annotated citations to primary and secondary materials. Sources include scholarly print works, authoritative Web sites, and quality movies, supporting a variety of learning styles. . . . While supporting researchers with reliable information, the book clearly puts the direction and depth of research in users’ hands.” SLJ

Includes bibliographical references

Richards, Michael D.

★ Term paper resource guide to twentieth-century world history; [by] Michael D. Richards and Philip
F. Riley. Greenwood Press 2000 335p $49.95
Grades: 9 10 11 12 016
1. Report writing 2. Modern history -- Study and teaching
LC 99-88458

Companion volume to Term paper resource guide to twentieth-century United States history by Robert Muccigrosso

“The most significant 100 events in world history are arranged chronologically. . . . Each topic is followed by six suggestions for term papers, both traditional and nontraditional in approach, such as interviews, exploring connections between literature and history, group projects, mock trails, and film study.” Book Rep

Includes bibliographical references

Rosen, Philip

Bearing witness; a resource guide to literature, poetry, art, music, and videos by Holocaust victims and survivors. [by] Philip Rosen and Nina Apfel-baum. Greenwood Press 2002 210p $52.95
Grades: Adult Professional 016
1. Reference books 2. Holocaust, 1933-1945 --
Bibliography
ISBN 0-313-31076-9
LC 00-69153

“This volume will be valuable to all who are researching the Holocaust. Its strength lies in the inclusion of materials not often found elsewhere.” Booklist

Includes bibliographical references

Thomas, Rebecca L.

Popular series fiction for middle school and teen readers; a reading and selection guide. [by] Rebecca L.
Thomas and Catherine Barr. 2nd ed; Libraries Unlimited 2009 710p (Children’s and young adult literature reference series) $65
Grades: Adult Professional 016
1. Reference books 2. Children’s literature --
Bibliography 3. Young adult literature -- Bibliography
LC 2008-38125

First published 2005

“The authors have identified nearly 2,200 in-print series
. . . (including manga, Cine-Manga, and illustrated novels) that will appeal to readers in grades 6-12. Entries are arranged by the series title and contain author, most recent publisher, grade level, notation for availability of accelerated-reader resources, genre, a descriptive three- to five-sentence annotation, and a list of individual titles in the series, arranged by publication date.” Booklist

Includes bibliographic references

Thompson, Jason

★ Manga: the complete guide. Ballantine Books/
Del Rey Manga 2007 592p il pa $19.95
Grades: Adult Professional 016
Graphic novels -- Bibliography
ISBN 978-0-345-48590-8

Former manga editor at Viz, Thompson reviews more than 900 manga titles that have been translated and published in the U.S. This book includes only original manga series published in Japan and then translated into English for U.S. publication. Titles include series that are no longer in print. The book also includes sidebar discussions on the many genres included in manga, including the age and genre divisions and such topics as otaku (hard-core fans), underground manga, and more. Separate sections cover yaoi and gay manga, and adult manga (often called hentai). It also includes an artist index. Each review includes a description of the series, how many volumes it has, an age rating, and content indicators.

Wadham, Rachel
This is my life; a guide to realistic fiction for teens. [by] Rachel L. Wadham. Libraries Unlimited 2010 431p (Genreflecting advisory series) $55
Grades: Adult Professional
  016
1. Teenagers -- Books and reading  2. Young adult literature -- Bibliography
LC 2010-24074
This “surveys contemporary realistic fiction for young adults (middle through high school). Wadham . . . annotates some 1,300 titles published for young adults between 1999 and 2009. Arranged by theme, titles represent real-life issues of broad interest (friendship, love, family, work) as well as specific issues faced in ‘problem novels’ (pregnancy, homelessness, eating disorders, crime and violence, abuse, drugs and alcohol, death, racism). Annotations include plot summaries, availability in audio, awards, grade-level designations, and subject keywords. . . . This is a useful tool for its intended audience of librarians and instructors seeking issue-related fiction.” Booklist
Includes bibliographical references

Welsch, Janice R.
Grades: 11 12 Adult
  016
1. Minorities in motion pictures
ISBN 0-313-31975-8
LC 2004-22529
This book “is a collection of synopses and brief analyses of selected American films. . . . It is divided into six sections, each of which covers a particular racial or ethnic group. The groups covered are African Americans, Arab and Middle Eastern Americans, Asian Americans, European Americans, Latino/a Americans, and Native Americans. . . . Each entry examines the way race or ethnicity functions in the film.” Ref & User Services Quarterly
Includes bibliographical references

Lanning, Scott
Concise guide to information literacy; Scott Lanning. Libraries Unlimited 2012 xii, 99 p.p (paperback) $35
Grades: Adult Professional
  020
1. Research 2. Information literacy
ISBN 1598849492; 9781598849493
LC 2011049229
This book “takes the reader through the entire research process, from selecting a topic to evaluating the final project. . . . Topics covered include categories and types of information and how to conduct both print and online searches, how to evaluate information, the research process, and the final project is also included, along with a chapter on utilizing librarians. Charts and graphs help illustrate the research process.” (Library Media Connection)
Includes bibliographical references (pages 91-93) and index

McCain, Mary Maude
Dictionary for school library media specialists; a practical and comprehensive guide. [by] Mary Maude McCain and Martha Merrill. Libraries Unlimited 2001 219p pa $42
Grades: Adult Professional
  020
1. Reference books 2. School libraries -- Dictionaries
ISBN 1-56308-696-4
LC 01-16506
“The book defines more than 375 terms. There are two types of definitions—shorter glossary descriptions (capital outlay, reboot) and longer, more detailed treatments (poetry, proximity operators). See references (especially from acronyms and abbreviations) and see also references facilitate use.” Booklist

Grades: 11 12 Adult Professional 020
ISBN 1414461372; 9781414461373
This volume is a book selection guide. It uses similarities in various books to help “readers to independently choose titles of interest published in the last year. Each entry describes a separate book, listing everything readers need to know to make selections. Arranged by author within six genre sections, detailed entries provide’ information about the title, publisher, series, and temporal and geographical setting. (Publisher’s note)
021.2 Relationships with the community

Gillespie, Kellie M.

Teen volunteer services in libraries. VOYA Books 2004 133p il (VOYA guides) pa $26.95
Grades: Adult Professional 021.2
LC 2003-17932
“If you are even considering starting a teen volunteer program, you must read this book. If you already have one in your library, this volume still has much to offer.” SLJ
Includes bibliographical references

Librarians as community partners; an outreach handbook. edited by Carol Smallwood. American Library Association 2010 204p pa $55
Grades: Adult Professional 021.2
LC 2009-20359
“Thirty-seven public, school, and academic librarians here share ‘how we did outreach good’ and produce a joyful collection. . . . Beyond a bounty of ideas are practical suggestions and examples that can be used for the library to approach organizations, groups, and governmental entities for grant applications. While the creative is foremost, the financial and efficient are also addressed with the essential details of who did what, how it was funded, and the nature of follow-up. . . . Even the smallest library with a handful of staff could benefit from this book.” Libr J
Includes bibliographical references

Squires, Tasha

★ Library partnerships; making connections between school and public libraries. Information Today, Inc. 2009 203p pa $39.50
Grades: Adult Professional 021.2
LC 2008-51647
“Squires’s confident advice can get beleaguered librarians through . . . difficulties and into mutually productive partnerships.” Voice Youth Advocates
Includes bibliographical references

021.7 Promotion of libraries, archives, information centers

Mahood, Kristine

★ Booktalking with teens. Libraries Unlimited 2010 289p (Libraries Unlimited professional guides for young adult librarians) pa $45
Grades: Adult Professional 021.7
LC 2009-49893
This “provides advice about preparing, developing, writing, performing and justifying booktalks. . . . Mahood’s expertise and enthusiasm are contagious and challenge all of us who work with youth to be as inspiring while sharing books as she is.” Booklist
Includes bibliographical references

Phillips, Susan P.

★ Great displays for your library step by step. McFarland & Co. 2008 234p il pa $45
Grades: Adult Professional 021.7
LC 2007-47450
“Phillips’ enthusiasm, creativity, and breadth of personal interests are evident throughout this book. . . . This text will inspire readers to locate and showcase the treasures in their own collections.” SLJ
Includes bibliographical references

Wolfe, Lisa Ann

★ Library public relations, promotions, and communications; a how-to-do-it manual. 2nd ed.; Neal-Schuman Publishers 2005 230p (How-to-do-it manuals for librarians) pa $65
Grades: Adult Professional 021.7
LC 2004-25944
First published 1997
“The book is divided into two parts—‘Planning and Evaluation’ and ‘Strategies and Methodologies’—with many examples of successful communicating and the impact and changes brought by technology. Ideas on putting together a communications plan, creating clear signage and print products, effectively using a library’s Web site, and communicating during a crisis will be helpful for all types of libraries and positions.” Booklist
Includes bibliographical references

022 Administration of physical plant

Bolan, Kimberly

★ Teen spaces; the step-by-step library makeover. 2nd ed; American Library Association 2009 225p il pa $40
Grades: Adult Professional 022
LC 2008-26621
First published 2003
“An essential guide for any library planning a teen-space project. . . . After an introductory chapter on teens and their needs within a library, all aspects of teen areas are explained. From the analysis and planning to design and decoration, Bolan outlines the steps to take and the pitfalls.
to avoid. . . . This book truly is a guide to step-by-step library makeovers.” SLJ
Includes bibliographical references

023 Personnel management (Human resource management)

Allison, Zmuda

Librarians as learning specialists; meeting the learning imperative for the 21st century. [by] Allison Zmuda and Violet H. Harada; foreword by Grant Wiggins. Libraries Unlimited 2008 128p il pa $40
Grades: Adult Professional

LC 2008-6036

“The book examines the necessity of a mission-centered mindset and changing the role of a library media specialist to a learning specialist. . . . Written for both school administrators and librarians, the well-documented book gives a workable framework for collaboration. The authors make a good case for opening the doors between classroom and library and provide tools for doing so.” SLJ
Includes bibliographical references

Giesecke, Joan

Grades: Adult Professional

1. Personnel management 2. Libraries -- Administration
ISBN 978-0-8389-1016-0
LC 2009-28890

First published 2005

“The authors give advice on how to build relationships with bosses, peers, and reports; establish good communication skills; create a healthy work climate; motivate others; and build a team. . . . Each chapter includes a succinct bibliography, allowing the new manager to continue his or her education—especially useful for more complex topics like project management.” Libr J
Includes bibliographical references

025 Operations of libraries, archives, information centers

Cohn, John M.

The complete library technology planner; a guidebook with sample technology plans and RFPs on CD-ROM. [by] John M. Cohn and Ann L. Kelsey; with a foreword by Keith Michael Fiels. Neal-Schuman Publishers 2010 xxiv, 163p il pa $99.95
Grades: Adult Professional

LC 2009-41008

“This book provides a comprehensive wealth of information for libraries in need of creating or updating a technology plan. Whether your goal is to introduce an integrated library system (ILS) or transfer from an existing system to a new one, Cohn and Kelsey make clear the strategic planning process involved and provide the tools needed to create a plan, including how to meet funding requirements, implement the plan, and evaluate its success. The accompanying CD-ROM contains 38 sample technology plans and requests for proposals (RFPs) that have been collected from 32 different libraries.” Libr J
Includes bibliographical references

Bell, Suzanne S.

Librarian's guide to online searching; 2nd ed.; Libraries Unlimited, an imprint of ABC-CLIO, LLC 2012 286 p. il (paperback) $55
Grades: Adult Professional

025.04 Information storage and retrieval systems

First published 2006

This book, the second edition by Suzanne S. Bell, looks at online searching and “covers everything from Boolean searching to using specific topic-based databases. Bell also includes a variety of screen captures from many of the databases she discusses. . . . The final chapter guides librarians in how to use the searching knowledge they have in order to teach others.” (Voice of Youth Advocates)

This “online searching guide will be invaluable to anyone starting out or looking for a refresher course on this topic. In clear concise language, the author covers everything from Boolean searching to using specific topic-based databases. . . . This easy-to-use manual, written with just a touch of humor and not a drop of condescension, is sure to be embraced by librarians of all skill levels.” Voice Youth Advocates
Includes bibliographical references

Berger, Pam

Choosing Web 2.0 tools for learning and teaching in a digital world; [by] Pam Berger and Sally Trexler; foreword by Joyce Valenza. Libraries Unlimited 2010 221p il map pa $40
Grades: Adult Professional

025.04 Information storage and retrieval systems

1. Web 2.0 2. Internet in education 3. Internet searching -- Study and teaching 4. Information literacy -- Study and teaching
LC 2009-54069
“The purpose of this book is to provide a framework for navigation within the constant change of learning in the twenty-first century. Chapter topics include social bookmarking, managing and organizing information, blogs and wikis, media sharing, social networking, and digital mapping.” Libr Media Connect

“This guide offers a plethora of ideas for incorporating digital learning into schools in an accessible and reader-friendly manner.” Voice Youth Advocates

Includes glossary and bibliographical references

Harris, Frances Jacobson

I found it on the Internet: coming of age online. 2nd ed.; American Library Association 2010 234p il pa $45

Grades: Adult Professional 025.04
1. Internet and teenagers 2. Young adults’ libraries 3. Internet -- Social aspects

First published 2005

The author offers “advice on how to help young people make good decisions, especially in such thorny areas as music and media sharing; tools for formulating information and communication policies . . . [and] ways of dealing with the problematic issues of hacking, cheating, privacy, harassment, and access to inappropriate content.” Publisher’s note

Includes bibliographical references

Scheeren, William O.

Technology for the school librarian; theory and practice. Libraries Unlimited 2010 223p il $50

Grades: Adult Professional 025.04

“This title provides information on the practical aspects of technology in the school library as well as the theoretical framework to spark continued learning. Sharing actual case studies as well as practical tips on technology implementation and terminology, this title will be a valuable resource to any school librarian.” Libr Media Connect

Includes bibliographical references

Shaw, Maura D.

Mastering online research; a comprehensive guide to effective and efficient search strategies. [by] Maura Shaw. Writers Digest Books 2007 340p il pa $19.99

Grades: 11 12 Adult 025.04
1. Internet research 2. Internet resources 3. Internet searching 4. Web sites -- Directories
ISBN 978-1-58297-458-3; 1-58297-458-6

The author describes “the techniques and tools you need to find information ranging from historical data to medical information to images and videos.” Publisher’s note

Grades: 11 12 Adult

025.04
1. Internet research 2. Internet resources 3. Internet searching 4. Web sites -- Directories
ISBN 978-1-58297-458-3; 1-58297-458-6

025.04
ISBN 9781598887150

This directory “contains more than 2,000 Web site records, organized into 20 subject-themed chapters; provides descriptions and URLs for each site; . . . includes information about the sponsoring agency; notes the useful or unique aspects of the site; lists some of the major government publications hosted on the site; evaluates the most important and frequently sought sites; provides a roster of congressional members with members’ Web sites includes a one-page ‘Quick Guide’ to the major federal agencies and the leading online library, data source, and finding aid sites; [and] highlights the Freedom of Information Act Web pages to access U.S. federal executive agency records.” Publisher’s note

025.042

World Wide Web

Bodden, Valerie

Using the Internet: Valerie Bodden. Creative Education 2012 48 p. (Research for writing) (library) $35.65

Grades: 8 9 10 11 12 025.042
1. Internet resources 2. Internet searching 3. Internet in education 4. Internet research 5. Computer network resources 6. Electronic information resource literacy
ISBN 160818207X; 9781608182077

This book is part of the Research for Writing series and focuses on using the Internet for research. The titles within the series “explain information such as the difference between qualitative and quantitative data, how to evaluate sources (both in print and online), and the importance of reference librarians.” (School Library Journal)

Includes bibliographical references and index.

Devine, Jane

Grades: Adult Professional 025.042
1. Internet in education 2. Internet searching -- Study and teaching
ISBN 1555708986; 9781555708986

This book is a follow-up volume to book “Going Beyond Google” by Jane Devine and Francine Egger-Sider, “which placed teaching the Invisible Web into information literacy programs. [This volume] expands on the teaching foundation laid in the first book and continues to document the In-