

DIRECTIONS FOR USE

Part I of Short Story Index, the Author, Title, and Subject Index, is arranged in dictionary form with all entries in one alphabet. Part II is a List of Collections indexed. The following directions apply to Part I.

Author entry

The author entry gives the name of the author and title of the story. For stories found in collections it also gives the title and editor of the collection.

Sample entry from a collection:

Gaiman, Neil

Eaten (scenes from a moving picture)
Darkness; two decades of modern horror; edited by Ellen Datlow

The above example shows that the story by Neil Gaiman entitled "Eaten (scenes from a moving picture)" appeared in Darkness; two decades of modern horror, edited by Ellen Datlow. Further information about the book is given in the List of Collections Indexed.

Title entry

Title entries are used to identify the author under whose name the story will be found. The order will be sorted on the first word of a title (not an article).

Sample entries:

The bull calf. Frame, J.
Ghost writer. Serling, R. J.

Subject entry

Stories found in collections are listed under subjects with which they deal in whole or in part. Subject entries are printed in capital letters, in boldface type. Consult the author entry for the title of the story collection.
